

JOIN OUR MISSION TO SHRINK TIME BETWEEN DISASTER AND RECOVERY

Who we are?

SBP is a national disaster resilience and recovery organization that exists to shrink time between disaster and recovery. SBP Puerto Rico's short-term goal is to rebuild 100 homes in its first year of operation. Support from volunteers like you will help us achieve that goal and, together, we will bring Puerto Rican families back home.

Where and how?

- Commitment across the island from San Juan to Yabucoa.
- Full and half day volunteer opportunities, Monday through Saturday, for individuals and groups.
- No experience necessary.
- We provide all the training, set goals, and drive visible impact.
- Register online or contact us today.

What to expect?

- Have a meaningful, safe, hands-on, team building experience.
- Gain knowledge and training on basic construction.
- Positively impact the lives of families in need.
- Contribute to the development of communities in Puerto Rico.
